Moral—West End, standing like the Apollo Belvedere of the Bluegrass, with outstretched arms to the less fortunate toilers, saying, "Come join us in the land of milk and honey and be happy"

Jekyll And Hyde at Burt's.

Burt's theatre patrons were treated to a decided innovation yesterday when the long string of melodramas which have appeared at that popular priced play-house was broken by a new production of Robert Lewis Stevenson's remarkable story of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde The change proved acceptable to large audiences and those who came to sniff remained to praise

This play is too familiar to Toledo theatre goers to need any explanation of plot or purpose. The entire theme centers in the remarkable transformation of Dr. Henry Jekyll, who is noted for his lovable disposition and good works, into the villainous character of Edward Hyde, who is the essence of evil-minded brutishness. In the production one is left to see too little of the real character of Dr. Jekyll, which is pictured largely in the explanatory lines of the actors, while that of Mr. Hyde is pictured with horrible vividness

While the whole company is splendidly balanced and equal to all demands upon it, the feature of the tragedy is the acting of Elwyn Strong, a new star in the dramatic firmament, but one who is able to keep a play of so strong possibilities from sinking to the level of mediocrity Young and ambitious, he puts a nerve and energy into his acting, which seems to permeate the whole company to the extent that every member enters into the play with zest.

The presentation is along lines of Mr. Strong's own adaption, without the necessity of comparison with former or contemporary productions. It is hard to imagine that the polished, gentlemanly and kindly appearing Dr. Jekyll is portrayed by the same man who a moment later is transformed into the misshapen, ugly, snarling Hyde, did the transformation not take place before one's very eyes.—Toledo Daily Blade, Dec. 23

A merchant dwelling in our town
Was far from wondrous wise;
He swore with a portentious frown
That he'd not advertise.
He never told in print about
A single thing he'd got,
But the officer who sold him out
Did advertise a lot.

It is not believed in Washington that an extra session will be called for next spring. The President, while emphatic in the opinion that the tariff should be revised, is not insisting strongly on an extra session, and the plan is opposed by a majority of the republican leaders in the House and Senate.

A dispatch from Lawrenceburg says: News has been received here of quite a romantic marriage at Ashland between Mrs. J. M. Jennings, of this county, and Wm M Lambert, of that city. About 14 years ago Mrs. Jennings, who was then Miss Mary Hensley, one of the prettiest and most charming girls of the eastern part of the State, was joined in marriage to Wm. M. Lambert, but owing to some family objection to the match a separation was agreed upon, and Mrs. Lambert was granted a divorce She was then married to Dr J M. Jennings, of Tyrone, who died six weeks ago from a sudden attack of appendicitis. For 12 years after the separation from her first husband Mrs. Jennings had never seen or heard of him. During Christmas she was the guest of friends at Ashland and while there Mr. Lambert was a constant caller, the old flame was renewed, which resulted in marriage. Quite a coincidence about the wedding is that the minister officiating at the first ceremony performed the same service at the second union

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

E. C. WALTON

In a speech before the "Duckworth Club" in Cincinnati Jackson Day, Ben John Temple Graves, editor of the Atlanta News, said in part, his subject being "Definite Democracy:" "In its nature and its mission the democratic party has been and must be a reform party. In the conditions which surround it now this mission and method becomes the price of its popularity and the necessity of its life. We have always failed, and will always fail, as a party of negation and a party of opposition. We have failed because we have been unfaithful. We have failed because we have trimmed and hesitated and straddled. We have failed because we have compromised with the apparently successful doctrines of the republican party and surrendered to men whose interests and convictions were so nearly akin to our political opponents that they ought, in common honesty to espouse the republican party to which they belong. We have failed because in our political hunger for success we have imitated the platforms and pandered to the powers of the opposite party that held the government."

In his message to the Legislature Gov Durbin declares that corruption in elections in Indiana is notorious, and he recommends the enactment of a law which will punish the vote buyer as well as the vote seller, says a dispatch. Things must be in a bad state indeed, if Assassination Sympathizer Durbin can see anything wrong with the republican side of politics.

The nomination of W. D Crum, a Negro, to be Collector of Customs for the port of Charleston, S. C., has been confirmed by the Senate. Crum had been nominated by the President three times, and in addition had received three recess appointments. Now Teddy can go way back and sit down and enjoy himself.

A mountain, which is said to be the most remarkable in the world, is situated in the State of Durango, Mexico. It certainly has a claim to this reputation, for it is 2,000 feet high, about three quarters of a mile in thickness at the base and is almost solid iron. Naturally it has been the dream of iron manufacturers ever since its discovery to lease the mountain and so work it. But this the government has refused to let them do until quite recently, when a contract was signed between it and some New York capitalists for the operation and development of the mountain on a partnership basis. The ore obtained from this mountain is said to yield about 87 per cent. pure iron.

To the Insuring Public!

Having had a loss under Policy No. F1 137,768 of Home Insurance Co., of New York, Jesse D. Wearen, Agent, Stanford, Ky., I am prepared to recommend the above company to you and tell you for prompt and liberal settlements of losses there is none better and I dare say few as good They do not deduct one-fourth from your policy, as some would have you believe, but willingly and cheerfully pay you all the indemnity that you pay them for. Beware of Mutual or Assessment Companies For further particulars in regard to Mutual or Assessment Companies, address me M. Garnett Murray Kingsville, Ky.

EVERYBODY IS NOT A TAILOR!

Having been in the Tailoring business all my life I feel confident that I can represent one of the best tailoring firms in the country. With my experience in taking measures, and directions I give, your clothes are bound to be satisfactory as my many patrons in this line will bear me out. My prices are the same as inexperienced men who are in the business. I also have a nice line of fancy cheviot and other suitings I will cut and make if you desire at a moderate price. Thanking you for past favors, I am, yours,

H. C. RUPLEY, the Tailor.

Valuable Property For Sale.

Ten acres of land, a two-story front 7 room cottage. The house is new. A splendid garden and orchard. There is a large mill on the place; a good crusher and the dam is in good repair and the natural power is great economy in running the mill. Does a splendid business. Everything is in good repair and has all necessary out-buildings The owner's only reason for selling is the rush of other business, as he has extensive farming interests to look after This property is on the Hanging Fork about 4 miles from Stanford, and can be bought at a bargain For further particulars, address S. C. Thurman, Lytle, Ky., or L. R. Hughes, Stanford, Ky.

FOR SALE OR RENT!

Decided to Stay.

We are not going to leave Stanford; in fact we never thought of leaving and don't intend to as long as we can make a living here. We know of no people we would rather live among than those who have made our store and business what it is; and, if we should be fortunate enough to make more than a living, we will stay in STANFORD and spend it with our friends, who have helped us to make it. As we expect to live among you we must at all times treat you as friends and customers and look to your interest in the future as we have in the past.

PERSONALS.

MISS CETTIE THURMOND is quite sick.

MR. W. I. WILLIAMS passed through this city Saturday.

PROF. M. D HUGHES, of Lancaster, was here yesterday at court.

MR. L R HUGHES left Sunday for Peru, Ind., on legal business.

HON R L. HUBBLE has gone to Atlanta with a car-load of mules.

MRS. W. A. TRIBBLE is the guest of Mrs D B Breck at Richmond.

MISS MYRTLE CORMINEY, of Garrard, is with Mrs. J. C Corminey.

SHELTON SAUFLEY, of Lexington, visited his mother here yesterday.

MR J. O TERRY, of Somerset, is with friends in the Highland section.

FRED GARNETT, of Cave City, is here with his sister, Mrs. J. S. Rice.

MR G. A. DENHAM, of Williamsburg, was with his brother, Mr. W. R Denham.

DR WILL PHILLIPS is very low of tuberculosis at his mother's, near Walnut Flat.

MR. JAMES MCKECHNIE, of Paisley, Scotland, is with his uncle, Mr. James McKechnie.

MR MITCHELL TAYLOR, of Burnside, orders his paper sent to him at Deming, N. M.

MRS. ANNIE DOTY and little son, James, of Millersburg, are with Mrs W B. McRoberts.

JUDGE J. W. ALCORN is in Washington City representing Hon. D C Edwards in his contest.

MRS. B D. CARTER and son, of Stanford, were here with relatives.—Mitchellsburg cor. Advocate.

LITTLE Misses Mary Lee and Elizabeth Givens, of Hubble, have been the guests of relatives here.

MISS ETTA MAY JONES gave a 6 o'clock dinner in honor of a number of her little friends Friday.

D W. FAULKNER, who bought the Rothwell farm near Preachersville, will move to it this week.

MISS STELLA RUPLEY, of Stanford, is visiting Miss Rhea Weimer, in the Highlands.—Louisville Times.

NEWS comes from Lancaster that another son has made its appearance at the home of Mr and Mrs. G B. Swinebroad.

MRS. B. P. MARTIN and son John T Martin, of Rowland, are visiting her daughter, Mrs O D Murphy, at Lebanon Junction.

MORRIS J. FARRIS, representing Chamberlain & Co., medicine men of Des Moines, Iowa, was a caller at this office Saturday.

SQUIRE W. D. WALLEN and daughter, Miss Beulah, of Crab Orchard, visited his sisters, Mesdames H. L Tate and J. F. Griffin here this week.—Mt Vernon Signal.

WILL T. HAZARD, superintendent of the Campbellsville Lumber Co, is moving with his family to McKinney, where he will handle the business of the company at that point.—Somerset Journal.

MRS. M. C. WILLIAMS and sons left yesterday to make Somerset their home. If their legion of friends here had a say so in the matter, this excellent family would have remained citizens of Stanford for all time to come.

MR. JAMES DUDDERAR celebrated his 85th birthday Sunday. His wife gave him an excellent birthday dinner, which was greatly enjoyed by the splendid old gentleman. Mr. R. R Gentry, who too was present, says the occasion was an exceedingly happy one.

JOHN LYNN, who has been with the firm of Fox & Logan, will retire as soon as he can get the business settled up and turned over to Mr. B. G. Fox, who recently purchased Mr. Logan's interest. Mr. Lynn has made many friends since he has been with the firm, and though he has offers to remain with the new management, has declined. It is to be hoped that he will remain in this city and go into some business.—Danville News.

MRS JOHN W. ROUT is ill.

MR J. H STEPHENS is over from Lexington.

ROBERT WALKER, of Richmond, is here buying horses.

MRS A C DUNN and little Nancy spent several days in the West End with Miss Mollie Harman.

MRS. S. C. THURMOND and Miss Bessie Dawson accompanied the remains of Mrs. M. L. Garvin to Horse Cave.

MRS. ANNE DUDDERAR, one of the very best women in the county, is lying at the point of death at her home at McKinney.

MR GEO. T. WOOD is now a deputy sheriff. He was sworn in by Sheriff M S. Baughman yesterday morning and begins his new duties at once. That he will make a splendid deputy sheriff none who know his sterling qualities will gainsay.

A WASHINGTON dispatch says: Former Congressman George M. Davison, of the Eighth district, now Assistant District Attorney for the Eastern District of Kentucky, is here to-day and will see the influential republicans now in the city. It is said that Mr Davison wants a better place in the government service.

MRS. W. C SHANKS gave an elegant 6 o'clock dinner Saturday to a number of Mr. Thos B Shanks' friends. Those present were Misses Pearl Burnside, Mattie Hays Owsley, Susan Fisher Woods, Lina Kennedy, Anna Cook, and Messrs Will S. Embry, W. S. Burch, George B Saufley, T. J. Hill, Jr, Kirkdrick Alcorn.

MR. FRANK LEE, the gentlemanly prescription clerk at Penny's Drug Store, will go to Middlesboro about Feb. 1st to take a position in Sprague's Drug Store. He makes the change in order to be with his brother, who is a clerk in that store. Mr Lee is an excellent young man and his departure from Stanford will cause universal regret.

LOCALS.

FOUND.—For collarette on E Main street. Apply at this office. *

FIVE shares of Crab Orchard Banking Co's stock changed hands here yesterday at $108.

I. O. O F.—A full attendance of the members is requested Tuesday night, Jan. 10th. Business of importance. *

CHARLES R BRAWNER, formerly of Jamboo, this county, has opened a butcher shop at Burgin and is doing a good business.

A 15 YEAR-OLD son of Leck Spratt died at Redford, Ind, and was brought to Goshen and buried Friday. The parents formerly lived in this county.

LOST.—Between Stanford and Crab Orchard on the night of Dec. 27th, a heavy lap robe. Finder will please return and be rewarded. C H Singleton, Crab Orchard. *

HELD OVER.—Mack Montgomery, James Green, Henry Traylor and Oss Baughman, all colored boys, were tried before Judge W. A. Tribble Saturday on the charge of stealing chickens from Mr. H. J. McRoberts and were held over to circuit court in $50 each.

THE dates and bills on the advertisements of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde show read Capital Theatre when it should be Walton's Opera House, Stanford. The company originally intended to play Frankfort, but as Middlesboro was the next stand, it had to change its route to make it. Frankfort's loss is Stanford's gain.

SIX months and a half have passed since we closed out our stock. We have some notes and accounts still unpaid and have mailed you several statements asking for a settlement and now there is but one thing left for us to do. Do not be surprised when our attorney calls on you, as we are compelled to take this step to close our partnership. Higgins & McKinney. *

THE work of filling in a portion of South Fork Trestle was completed last week and Messrs. J. E Oatts and J. T. Calhoun, of Asheville, N. C., returned to their homes yesterday. They moved 170,000 yards of dirt and besides doing a good job, made money on the contract. Mr. R R Gentry, who acted as deputy sheriff in that section while the work was going on, speaks in high terms of Messrs Oatts and Calhoun, who he says are not only affable gentlemen, but splendid business men.

ATTEND J A Tucker's sale near Maywood to-morrow. See "ad."

SCHOOL will begin at Hubble Monday with Miss Lizzie Loy as teacher.

COL. LANHAM held lucky No. 44, which drew the pretty pony raffled off by I. D Austin.

REWARD.—Return our Fence Stretchers at once and receive reward. George H. Farris & Co. *

FOR SALE.—A clean, fresh stock of Dry Goods and a nice residence in Stanford, Ky John P Jones. *

TWO nice rooms over Higgins' store for rent cheap. Suitable for offices or living rooms. W H Higgins. *

THE probating of R L Williams' will, in which he leaves all of his property to his wife, was the only thing worthy of mention done in the county court yesterday.

THE bad weather of yesterday knocked court day business into a cocked hat. Not much of a crowd came to town and a majority of those who were here spent the day hugging the stoves.

THE little people of the music department of the Graded School, assisted by the pupils of the Fourth Grade, will give an entertainment in the Graded School building on the night of Feb 22nd.

MR. H D ALDRIDGE, who recently moved over from Garrard, has rented and taken charge of the Daugherty blacksmith shop. He knows his business and will make it to your interest if you will give him a share of your work.

THE Singer Sewing Machine Co has opened an office in the store-room formerly used by the Veranda Hotel. It will be the central office of this territory comprised of Lincoln, Garrard and Casey. Mr J. S. Bonta, formerly manager of the Danville headquarters, will be manager of the office here as well as of a branch which will be established at Lancaster.

THE Central Ky Real Estate Exchange & Title Co has for sale two tracts of land living in the Southern end of Lincoln county, near Southern railway. One tract consists of 38 acres, the other five acres. The owner of this property lives at a distance and we are instructed to sell it privately. It must go. The best bid gets it. For further particulars see or address L R Hughes, Stanford, Ky.

A VALUABLE HELPMEET.—Mrs. W. S. Wigham, of Moreland, would be glad to know if any lady in this part of the State can beat her record for 1904. She sold $80 worth of strawberries, $57.75 worth of vegetables, $61 81 worth of eggs. She milked three cows nine months and sold $155 90 worth of milk and $246 80 worth of butter, making a total of $602 20, besides supplying two families with butter and eggs and berries, and one in milk and the other one in milk part of the time.—Danville News.

EVANS.—Rev Morris Evans, at one time pastor of the Methodist church here, died in Sulphur Springs, Texas, after a short illness. Rev. Mr. Evans was 76 years of age and for many years was a member of the Kentucky conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. Until 10 years ago he lived in Kentucky, but was transferred to Texas on account of failing health. He resided in Louisville for some time and was a member of a local commandary of Knights Templar. He is survived by his wife. His body was brought to Harrodsburg for burial.

GARVIN.—Mrs Vivion Thurmond Garvin, wife of Dr. M. L Garvin, of Horse Cave, died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs Samuel C. Thurmond, on the Danville pike, and her remains were taken to her late home for interment Saturday. She came here to spend Christmas with her homefolks and was taken with pneumonia and other troubles. Never very strong, her constitution gave away to the complication of diseases and the spirit of the young wife returned to the God who gave it. She was a handsome, bright and happy young woman and had much to live for, but in His divine wisdom He called her home, and He does all things for the best. A husband, mother and father are left to mourn the loss of Mrs. Garvin and in their sorrow they weep not alone.

WANTED.—Good reliable boy, 15 to 20 years old, to do light work on small farm. Address at once H K. W., Danville, Ky. 2t

MOVED.—Mr and Mrs J S Edmiston have moved from McKinney to Moreland, where Mr Edmiston has opened a "Kandy Kitchen."

LAND & BUCHANAN, who bought the hide of the wolf killed in the East End by George Grayson and Abel Bryant, brought it to town yesterday and had it on exhibition at this office, where it was viewed by many people.

THIS office has just gotten out a nice little catalogue for Mr I Shelby Tevis, of Travelers' Rest Farm, advertising his magnificent herd of jacks, headed by the great Emperor, 27. The work greatly pleased Mr Tevis, who seems to be almost as good a judge of printing as he is of jack stock.

HARDIN.—Miss Alice Hardin, daughter of Mr Samuel Hardin, of Crab Orchard, died last week and was buried in the cemetery at that place after services at the home by Elder J. G. Livingston. She was about 56 years old and was a splendid woman. She began to fail mentally and bodily some years ago and death must have been a sweet relief to her. Of a happy family of 13, only two remain, Mr Samuel Hardin, the father, and Miss Laura Hardin, a daughter, whose devotion to her aged father is beautiful indeed.

STUART.—We did not hear until yesterday of the death of Mr William Stuart, one of Crab Orchard's oldest and most respected citizens. His death occurred some days ago and was caused by a complication of troubles. He was 71 years old and many years of his long life had been spent at Crab Orchard, where he had the respect and esteem of everybody. His wife preceded him to the grave several years ago but he left a number of sons and daughters to mourn the loss of a kind and indulgent father. Peace to the ashes of the good man.

THE city of Stanford publishes a splendid report of its financial condition in this issue. It is indeed a pity though that a town so prosperous as this, does not consider itself able to keep a night policeman, but offers the paltry sum of $10 per month toward engaging the services of one, expecting the business men to "pony up" the balance in the event one is secured. That Stanford needs a night watchman all will admit, but in the name of fairness let the town pay him out of its receipts and not make the private individual go down in his pocket for the money.

CONWAY.—The sad news came this morning that Mrs Helen Conway, wife of Mr. Joseph L. Conway, was dead at Wichita, Kansas, and that the remains would arrive at Hustonville, her old home, for burial Thursday afternoon next. Deceased was the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs Samuel Reid, of the West End, and was a most excellent woman. Nine years ago this month she was married to the husband who is now crushed with grief, and a happier union we cannot recall. A little son, Reid Conway, further blessed this union, and while he will prove a great comfort to the bereaved father, he will never fully realize what a mother's tender love and care is. Nor does the loss of this Godly woman stop here, for her aged parents, brothers and sister loved her most devotedly. In fact they almost idolized her and she fully merited their tender love, and now that she is no more, their grief knows no bounds. May He who tempers the wind to the shorn lamb comfort them all in this, their dark hour, and make them to soon realize that in the land that is fairer than day, where she now is, there is no trouble, no sorrow and no suffering. Truly a good woman has been called to her reward; may the good example she set be emulated. In her girlhood Mrs Conway gave her heart to God and since had been a devout member of the Christian church. She was an active church worker, while her health lasted, but several years ago was compelled to give it up, her physical condition became so bad. The West End people remember how she loved and worked for her church and many of them will drop a tear when they learn that her earthly deeds are no more. Truly she leaves a happy memory; beloved of all and one of God's chosen ones, whose life will long remain a bright spot in the memory of all who knew and loved her.

No Speeches For Douglas.

The Hon. William L. Douglas, the next governor of Massachusetts, has cut off an old sacred furbelow from his rubes. He says that he won't make speeches: that he means to be at home every night at 10. He will do his duty to the Commonwealth, but he proposes to take care of himself, see his family and not waste time, wind and digestion.

Mr Douglas insists that he is a shoemaker, not a speechmaker. He showed to his canvass that he is a very effective speaker, but he doesn't talk for the sake of airing his voice. The after-dinner speech bug has not bitten him.

The ceremonial and processional functions of the governor of Massachusetts have been most important and varied. He dedicates; he cornerstones; he cattleshows; he musters; he commencement exercises; he pats young ladies on the cheek and gives them sheepskins; he addresses every shape of man, woman and child the somewhat limited area of the Bay State can produce. In better days, accompanied by the most splendid and heaviest braided and cloaked staff in the world, he roamed about the State, raising his voice and the standard of aesthetics.

Mr. Douglas will not sacrifice himself on the altar of Wind. Sensible man Besides, if Gen. Nelson Appleton Miles is to be the next adjutant general of Massachusetts, the State will not lack a constant splendor and a voice that will not spare itself in the task of instructing, elevating and warning.—New York Sun

Teacher—Tommy, what did I tell you yesterday that it was called to take out several letters?

Tommy Figgjam—Abbreviate.

Teacher—Then make a sentence correctly using the word "abbreviate"?

Tommy—I saw a letter-carrier abbreviate the mail box on the corner.—Baltimore American.

Spoiled Her Beauty.

Harriet Howard, of 209 W. 34th street, New York, at one time had her beauty spoiled with skin trouble. She writes: "I had Salt Rheum or Eczema for years, but nothing would cure it, until I used Bucklen's Arnica Salve." A quick and sure healer for cuts, burns and sores. 25c at Penny's Drug Store and Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard, Ky.

Charles S. Deneen was inaugurated as the 23rd governor of Illinois.

"I wish I dared ask you something, Miss Helen," said Percy, with trembling voice and wabbling chin.

"Why don't you dare to ask it?" the maiden said demurely.

"Because I can see 'No' in your eyes"

"In both of them?"

"Y-yes"

"Well, don't you—don't you know two negatives are equivalent to an—how dare you, sir? Take your arm from around my waist instantly!"

But he didn't

A Grim Tragedy

Is daily enacted in thousands of homes as Death claims, in each one, another victim of Consumption or Pneumonia. But when Coughs and Colds are properly treated, the tragedy is averted. F. G. Huntley, of Oaklandon, Ind., writes: "My wife had consumption, and three doctors gave her up Finally she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which cured her, and to-day she is well and strong" It kills the germs of all diseases. The sick man had called his lawyer. "I wish to explain again to you," said he, weakly, "about willing my property—"

The attorney held up his hand reassuringly. "There, there," he said, "Leave that all to me!"

The sick man sighed resignedly.

"I suppose I might as well," said he turning upon his pillow. "You'll get it, anyway."—Judge

No. 78, 1 square acres of cotton land in Mississippi There is no section of country which offers so many opportunities for profitable investments as the Mississippi Delta which is now fully described as "Prosperity Valley." The timber is becoming more valuable all the time for the reason that timber people from the North (where the supply of timber is fast diminishing, are constantly increasing their purchases of timber lands in the South. When the timber is removed the land is unequaled for agricultural purposes. It will produce a bale of cotton to the acre or will grow any other kind of crop raised in the temperate zone The soil needs no fertilizers and gives a yield which cannot be excelled; taxes are low, the title is perfect and the man who buys Delta farm and timber lands at present prices is making an investment that he will never regret. This land is divided into tracts ranging from 40 acres to the tract, 10,000 acres to the tract and prices from $8 per acre to $40 per acre, according to location, etc. We are authorized by the company who owns these lands to state that as other parties are considering the purchase of these lands that we offer these tracts subject to prior sale, withdrawal from market or change in price without notice. However, when notified, they will hold any tract out of market long enough for the purchaser to make an investigation. About 12,000 acres of this land has been sold by the Company since we received this option. For further particulars call at our office.
